Intro
In the silence
All is seen

Verse 1
The world goes on in its certainties
Blinded by its self-chosen ways
Every heart conceals its deepest wounds
Beneath appearances without faith

Verse 2
Voices promise gleams of brightness
Yet they turn the soul away from truth
And man keeps walking on through the night
Not seeing that he is already judged

Verse 3
But the hour arrives when all is unveiled
When nothing will stay hidden
A light goes passing through the soul
And lays all things completely bare

Each thought, each spoken word
Each desire is revealed
And man stands face to face with himself
In the full clarity of God's truth

Bridge
No trace of shadow still remains
No place of refuge in the lie
For the light that now descends
Penetrates to the deepest depths

Chorus
May your kingdom come
May your light descend
May your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven

May your kingdom come
May the truth arise
And may every heart acknowledge
The voice of the eternal God

Verse 4
Some fall into fear
Others open up to the light
Some flee before the truth
Others return to the Father

For no one flees before this gaze
That sees beyond appearances
And in this inward face to face
There the eternal answer is at stake

Verse 5
Then every lie comes crashing down
And loses all authority
He who seduced the nations
Is exposed and stripped bare

His words become silence
His promises are dissolved
And bound in chains by the truth
His power is broken

Bridge
Nothing shall remain hidden
Nothing shall remain standing
What is not of God falls
What is true remains

Chorus
May your kingdom come
May your light descend
May your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven

May your kingdom come
May the night be overthrown
And may every soul stand
In your peace restored

Verse 6
And when all is revealed
And evil no longer has a voice
A new order rises up
Under the light of your law

In this restored silence
Where everything returns to its place
Your kingdom is established in peace
And the truth alone endures

Outro
May your kingdom come
May your kingdom come
